THE ALEXANDRIA SCANDAL. END OF HEARING.

The further hearing of Mr. Ninci's petition for a judicial segaration from his wife, on the ground of her adultary with Judge Constantine Dimersa, late President of the Hal-lenic Consultar Tribunal at Alexandria, was continued youterday afternoon at 4 o'doke before the Italian Consultar Court, under the presidency of Judge Palqui, assizted by Mr. Amabile Cambo and Mr. Arren. Matro Coloci, soomal for the petitioner, disputed the authenticity of one of the letters read to the Court by Matre Guidetti. This letter was appoond to have been written by the wifts to her father, comparising of her numarity and the string pronounced it to be a forgery. Connsel for the wife them arplained that the document in greation was not an original manuscript, but simply a translation that the document in question was to that the document in question was to reginal manuscript, but simply a tran from the Greek to Italian. He prom that the doomnet in question was not an original manascript, but simply a translation from the Greek to Italian. He promised to hiring the original latter into Corrt. Mattre Colucci than hapan to controver the arguments of the consult for the fedence, and showed that the first line of defines was based on five points, in order to prove that the fault lay with the husbard via. showed that if Mr. Ninci was guilty of violent bahaviour, it was only natural considering that he had been tried so much, and as to the Helouan incident, he had only smacked his wife.

In regard to the second line of defence, manely, that the recordision of humbard and infinite analysis of the claim of the humbard to a judicial separation, Maitre Coloci declared that the recordision or any of a tacit mature, and thus did not invalidate the subsequent claim for a separation. If the declared that the wife's conduct was very like the acase of the horino of Paul Bourget's "Cruelle Boigmen," for, although also loved her humbard, the massed is a separation, and the did not invalidate the subsequent claim for a separation. If the declared that the wife's conduct was very like the acase of the horino of Paul Bourget's "Cruelle Boigmen," for, although also loved her humbard, yet the was unable to resist deciving him. Mr. Ninci loved his wife to distraction, and this passionate devotion the fault sequence like the subsequence of the conduct and his washness in abouting to a momentary recommission of Paul Bourget's "Cruelle Boigmen," for, although a single statistical separation, the conduct and his washness in a bandari of his right to a judicial separation. nued Mattre Colucci, his client was a man of generous feelings, and would not allow his wife to starva. If, however, the Court granted a fixed ann, such as LR LS, the wife would leave Egypt, and go to live with the judge at her husband's expense. His was prepared to give her an allowance of LR 5 monthly. In spite of the protestations of Mattre Guidott; Mattre Colucci dealared that the entire family of the with, prior to her marriagen assisted on the site of the site.

Maire Colocci declared that the entire family of the wife, prior to her marriage, existed on LE 8 sper month, so that LE 5 for her alone was anough. This ended the speech of Mattre Colocci, and Mattre Guidout them rose to region but was informed by the judge that, as it was late, he should seed his plashings to him and that judgment would be given in a few day' time.
